

HW: Engagement During Class

✓ Published

This grade represents how well a student uses class time to learn biology. Some of this will be through self-assessment a couple of times a trimester though the teacher may at times moderate students' self-assessment.

If you don't follow these instructions I will enter a score of 70 for this assignment.

Please read this full assignment and then fill out this form:

THEN, submit a text box where you assign yourself a score from 0-100 for class engagement . AND explain what the most significant factors were in the score you gave yourself.

If I agree, that will be your score for this assignment. If I disagree, I will enter a different score and make a comment explaining why

If you don't follow these instructions I will enter a score of 70 for this assignment.

A score of 100 says you believe the following about yourself DURING class:

I am always respectful of other students and the teacher in class. If someone points out something I'm doing that makes it difficult for them to work, I look for ways to change my behavior.

When I notice myself or others are not working on Biology, I look for ways to respectfully get everyone back on task.

I have figured out a system for myself that prevents my phone or computer from distracting me during class.

I always clean up my material after lab and class. I also look around to see if there is someone else I can help .

I am always mentally engaged in the activity for class. On days when I am mentally or physically tired, I make my best effort to be productive in class.

When I am confused, I ask questions during class or follow up after class by researching, talking to a classmate or talking to Mr. Wassink

I have never worked on material for other classes during biology without first getting permission from Mr. Wassink
